

33 Christmas, New Year and Easter Greetings

Public holidays are known as Bank Holidays and there are some differences between the dates of holidays in various parts of the U.K.

	(i)	(ii)	(iii)	(iv)
A	Happy Christmas!	Happy Easter!	Happy New Year!	Have a good weekend.
B	Thanks very much. Same to you!	Thanks. And you, too!	Thank you very much. You, too!	Thanks. The same to you!
A	Are you doing anything special?	Are you doing anything?	Are you going anywhere?	Have you got anything planned?
B	We're having some friends round. What're you doing?	I've been invited over to Pat's. And you?	I thought about going to my sister's. How about you?	I can't afford to do much. What about you?
A	I daresay I'll just take things easy.	My room-mate's ¹ giving a party.	I'll probably just stay at home.	I expect I'll stay with my family.

¹ room-mate: the person I share my room with

